Thursday, March 4. 1768.

From the Amst. and Bruss. Gaz. dated March 2. &c.

Naples, Feb. 7.

COUNT Taun our Viceroy has receiv'd Advice by an Express, of the Reduction of the Castle of Piombino and of that whole Principality, at the first Summons of a Detachment of 300 Imperialists of the Garrison of Orbitallo. The Duke de Matalone has voluntarily furnish'd Cloth made at Cerrito, to the value of above 6000 Crowns, to cloath part of the Troops in this Kingdom. Don Gabriel Torres, Marquis of Matalba, is arriv'd here from Barcelona; having been gratified by his Catholic Majesty with the Government of Pescara in the Abruzzo, and a Breve of Gullond. The 25th of last Month, there was a great Earthquake in the Provinces of Basilicata and Calabria. The Cathedral of Caffano was all shaken down, with a Convent of Nuns; as were also several Houses in the Lordship of Castelluccia. A Reinforcement of Troops are sent to Calabria, to disperse the Banditti that are got together and commit great Disorders there. The 4th instant the Magistrates of this City attended the Viceroy, and desir'd him to give the necessary Orders for transporting Corn hither from Apulia, to prevent Scarcity and Dearness of Provisions; upon which, his Excellency has not only renew'd the Orders he had given before, but likewise taken effectual Methods for the Relief of the People.

From the Harl. and Ant. Cour. dated Mar. 3. &c.

Naples, Feb. 7. The President of Milino, and several Officers, Spaniards, who had procur'd Passports of the Viceroy for their Servants, have made use of them themselves, and have suddenly withdrawn themselves from hence, in order to retire out of the Kingdom. The 4th instant being Saturday, no Bread was to be had in the Market in the Evening: And this Morning there was hardly any Meal to be had there. Which occasioning great Murmuring among the Populace, the Viceroy has judg'd it necessary, to prevent all Tumulks, to order 800 Horse to parroll about the Streets Day and Night. In the mean time his Excellency has sent Directions to Apulia, for a stop to be put to the transporting of Corn from thence to Catalonia, and for bringing it hither. The Earthquakes on the 25th and 29th of last Month, in Calabria and Basilicata, were very terrible; for at Caffano, Bisignano, Villare, Tricario, and several other Places, divers Churches, Monasteries and Houses were thrown down or much shatter'd, and many Persons were bur'ld under the Ruines. 'Tis advis'd from Messina, that the Towns of Butera, Alicata, Biscari, and Chiaramonte, in the Southern Part of Sicily, suffered great Damage by an Earthquake the 18th of January.

From the Amst. and Harl. Cour. dated Mar. 9. &c.

Naples, Feb. 14. A Genoese Ship that came from the Morea laden with Corn, being driven by fits of Weather into Gaeta, her Lading is purchas'd in order to be sold here, whither Corn is brought by Land from Apulia and other Provinces, and Tartans are fitting out to cruise in the Sea of Calabria against the Privateers of Sicily who interrupt our Commerce and Navigation. Some Days ago Deputies from the City-Council waited on the Viceroy, and represented to him, that the Sum of 80000 Ducats, a publick Fund assign'd for maintaining Plenty of Provisions in the City, being apply'd to other Uses, it was impossible for our Magistrates to procure such Supplies as are necessary to keep the People quiet, unless the Government would furnish them with an Equivalent for that Fund. Tother Day the Dealers in Corn finding they could not bring out a sufficient Quantity to serve the Market, retir'd into Churches, to secure themselves from the grumbling Populace, who began to be turbulent, but were appeas'd by the coming in of some Corn from the Country by Land-Carriage. On Sunday last no Bread being to be had for Money, a Tumult was rais'd at the Gate of St. Genaro; Judge Andreasi haffen'd thither with the Sbirri, and siez'd some of the Rioters, but soon let them go again, to avoid the Violence with which he was threaten'd by the Mob. Yester day the Nobility were assembled by Order of the Viceroy, to choose a Person to meet and compliment the Royal Bride of King Charles: Count Montroni, Son of the Prince Riccia, being elected, declin'd that Honour, whereupon the Duke of Guastalla, who is absent, was nominated; Advice of it will be sent him, and his Resolution expected.

From the Amsterdam Gazette March 9.

Rome, Feb. 18. The Pope being inform'd that notwithstanding his strict Prohibition of all Diversions during the Carnival, a Comedy and Ball had been perform'd at a Villa within the Bounds of this City, has banish'd the Chevalier Inquilino Master of the House out of the Ecclesiastical State, and put under Arrest several Persons that were at the Entertainment. The Marquis Macarani and the Son of the Duke of Lanti, who had invited several Noblemen and Ladies to it, are order'd to depart this City with their Wives; and among those who are confin'd to their own Houses, are the Constable Colonna, Prince Titus Giustiniani, and the 2 Sons of Prince Pamphilio: Others have withdrawn themselves and retir'd to their Country Seats. Some of the Comedians and Musicians are imprison'd. The Countess of Taun, who arriv'd here some Days ago, and lodg'd in the Palace of Cardinal Grimani, is gone to Naples to her Husband, after having view'd what is most remarkable in this City, and been visited and complimented by divers Persons of Quality that are well-affection'd to the House of Austria.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 2.

Venice, Feb. 18. We have receiv'd Advice from Tuscany, that the Imperial Collonel Wallis has block'd up Porto-Longone; and expect from Naples 500 Men, with 4 Mortars and 2000 Bombs, to enable him to attack it. The Imperialists having taken Possession of Piombino, 'tis believ'd they will keep it, and that they will give to the Princels of that Name some Principality in the Kingdom of Naples in Exchange for it, instead of accepting the 24000 Ducats which she offer'd for maintaining the Garrison.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 3.

Paris, March 3. They write from Nice the 12th of last Month, that the Night between the 10th and 11th the Marquis de Marcelli march'd from Sospello with 600 Men, to endeavour to sieze and carry off a Magazine of Salt and 40 Mules loaded with Cloth, between Broglie and Saorgio: But he being discover'd, the Mules escap'd: In the Magazine he found only some Meal, Money, and the Salt, of which the Soldiers took each a light Burthen, and threw the rest into the River. In his Return he found all the Country in Arms: but they could not possess themselves of the Passage, because he had had the Precaution to leave some Troops there. He drove them from the Hills on which they had posted themselves, with considerable Loss, having do more than 4 of his own Men wounded. M. de St. Catherine who commanded the Grenadiers and Carabiniers distinguished himself on this Occasion. There were about Genoa above 100 Mules laden with Cloth for the Duke of Savoy's Troops, which durst not pass, because there are Parties abroad Day and Night in their Way.
